1. Welcome and Announcements Melinda Hickey
 - a. Opened the meeting at 8:34 am.
 - b. Our monthly meetings will take place at the Outreach Center of West Houston.
 - c. Melinda reports a great turnout for the Provisional Happy Hour last week.
 - d. Sheila Leif introduced Rhonda West and Laura Miller (from HERO).
 - i. FJWC organization is very important to HERO (drivers, office volunteers, and Board members).
 - ii. Laura and Rhonda have roots in FJWC (have been actively involved in FJWC and children participated too).
 - iii. HERO needs our help – Harvey changed a lot and they are hoping to rebuild their pipeline of drivers and office workers. Driving (on the day you choose) is only within our 5 zip codes of Spring Branch for doctors' appointments. For office working (close to Memorial City Hospital), it is only a 2.5-hour shift on the day you choose to listen to voicemails and help schedule drivers.
 - iv. Application – new changes to the application are to ask for preference on days to volunteer as well as what kind of car you drive. Some cars will not work for everyone.
 - v. Please contact Rhonda or Laura if you would like to discuss more about helping.
 - e. FPR: Jorge Quiñones, Executive Director (Phone: 281-497-7211) spoke about how OCWH (they own the building) is a ministry.
 - i. Leadercast is a leadership training offered October 26th. OCWH is offering a course at a discounted rate of $70 for girls (usually $150) and $99 for moms. All are welcome to come to volunteer as well.
 - f. Melinda shared it is Sting's birthday today!
 - g. It is also breast cancer awareness month.
2. Treasurer Report Kenze Beyer
 - a. No formal report this month. Budget was distributed to general membership.
3. Recording Secretary Meka Arend
 - a. Meka asked for the September minutes to be approved. They have been posted on the website for review.
 - b. Karen Conticello made a motion to approve the September minutes.
